BIO

Born and raised in Nagano, Japan and originally trained as nurse, Taiko now lives and works in Denver, CO. Since taking her first art class at the Art Students League of Denver, Taiko has focused on printmaking; more recently exploring other media, such as installation and sculpture, to express her inner vision.

Taiko's work has been exhibited in Colorado (including solo exhibitions at the Boulder Museum of Contemporary Art and Denver Botanic Gardens) and in other states, as well as numerous print fairs throughout the U.S. Her work is in private and public collections in the U.S. and Japan, including the Cleveland Clinic Art Program, University of Colorado Denver Business School, Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center (NY) and the Denver Art Museum (Education Collection).
